Shareholder Communication and Investor Relations Policy

The Board recognises that it needs to engage with its Shareholders and provide them with appropriate information and facilities to allow them to exercise their rights as shareholders effectively. This includes:

- giving Shareholders ready access to balanced and understandable information about the Company and its governance;
- communicating openly and honestly with Shareholders; and
- encouraging and facilitating their participation in meetings of Shareholders.

The purpose of this policy is to outline how the Company will provide Shareholders and other investors with information about itself and its governance, and to outline the Company's investor relations program.

References in this Policy to communicating and interacting with Shareholders includes, where securities are held by a custodian or nominee, communicating or interacting with the beneficial owner of the securities.

The Company will communicate with Shareholders in a number of ways including:

- through the Company's website;
- through releases to the market as required under the ASX Listing Rules;
- through information provided directly to Shareholders;
- at general meetings of the Company; and
- meeting with a Shareholder or responding to enquiries.

1. Company website

The Company has a website which can be found at www.geopacific.com.au. The Company's website is designed to provide Shareholders and other investors with helpful information about the Company including:

- a) an overview of the Company's current business;
- b) a description of how the Company is structured;
- c) once they are known, the time, venue and other relevant details for the annual general meeting and other meetings of Shareholders;
- d) historical information about the market prices of the Company's securities;
- e) copies of ASX and media releases the Company makes;
- f) copies of Company presentations;
- g) contact details for enquiries from Shareholders, analysts or the media; and
- h) contact details for its share registry.

The Company's website has a "corporate governance" landing page from where the Company's relevant corporate governance information can be accessed. The following information is available in the corporate governance area of the Company's website:

- a) its constitution, its Board Charter and the Charters of each of its Board sub-committees;
- b) its corporate governance policies and procedures; and
- c) the annual Corporate Governance Statement prepared in accordance with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

The Company also makes available on its website the following information on a regular and up-to-date basis:

- a) the names, photographs and brief biographical information for each of its Directors and Senior Executives;
- b) copies of its annual reports and financial statements;
- c) copies of its announcements to ASX for the previous 5 years; and

- d) copies of notices of meetings of security holders and any accompanying documents.

2. Market Releases

It is the Company's policy to comply with the continuous and periodic disclosure obligations contained in the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). In accordance with the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy, unless excluded by the ASX Listing Rules, the Company will immediately notify the ASX of information:

- Concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities; and
- That would, or would likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether to acquire or dispose of the Company's securities.

3. Direct electronic communication with Shareholders

Throughout the year the Company may directly communicate with Shareholders e.g. to give Shareholders notice of general meetings or to update Shareholders by way of a letter from the Board.

The Company gives Shareholders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its security registry electronically.

Shareholders and other investors are able to register on the Company's website to receive information updates about the Company.

4. General meetings

The Company recognises that general meetings are an important forum for two-way communication between the Company and its Shareholders. The meetings provide the Company with an opportunity to impart to Shareholders a greater understanding of its business, governance, financial performance and prospects, as well as to discuss areas of concern or interest to the Board and management. The meetings also provide Shareholders with an opportunity to express their views to the Company's Board and Management about any areas of concern or interest for them.

The Company endeavours to actively engage with Shareholders at its general meetings and encourages attendance and participation at its meetings.

The Company provides information in the notice of meeting and explanatory memorandum that is presented in a clear, concise and effective manner.

In accordance with section 250S of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), at the Company's annual general meetings the Chair of the meeting will allow a reasonable opportunity for members to ask questions about or make comments on the management of the Company.

5. Shareholder meetings and enquiries

The Company endeavours to meet with Shareholders upon request and responds to any enquiries they may make from time to time on publicly available information.

The Company's interactions with institutional investors, private investors and the financial media are driven by the Company's activities at the time. The Company Secretary is the Company's contact point with stakeholders and is available to assist in facilitating effective two-way communication.

Shareholders can obtain all relevant information to assist them in exercising their rights as shareholders by contacting the Company at its registered office by telephone or email info@geopacificresources.com.au or by going to the Company's website.
